Get More from the ATS Journals

The ATS Journals collectively cover the entire spectrum of adult and pediatric pulmonary, critical care, and sleep medicine—from bench to bedside.

- Researchers appreciate the journals' emphasis on translating basic science discoveries into clinical advances
- Clinicians turn to the journals for the latest clinical guidelines and important reviews of the literature on the diagnosis and treatment of respiratory disease
- More issues feature CME, ABIM, and ABP MOC opportunities
- Renowned editors include Jadwiga A. Wedzicha, MD, the clinical chair in respiratory medicine at Imperial College London, who is now the new Blue Editor

Here's What You Need to Know for 2016

- New subscription orders are on a rolling renewal basis from date of order processing. Issues published in the same year but prior to the start of the subscription must be purchased separately.
- Renewals extend from date of expiration so there is no interruption of service. (Orders received after December 31, 2015 will be on an anniversary schedule.)
- Canada & Mexico are charged international, not domestic, pricing.
- We offer an agency discount. Please contact the Subscriptions department for more information: subscriptions@thoracic.org.

The ATS Introduces Legacy Content.

ATS members and subscribers now have access to AJRCCM articles from July 1959. Institutional subscribers pay a one-time fee of $1,000 for perpetual access!

2016 ATS Institutional Subscription Rates

All institutional subscribers are able to access the journals online at atsjournals.org. Online accounts can be authenticated via IP address to enable simultaneous access for multiple users. Subscription prices are tailored to fit the appropriate category and size of each organization. Multisite and consortia prices are available. An agency discount will be applied to all orders received via a valid subscription agent. To receive a quote, please email subscriptions@thoracic.org.
